

Nahon Saharovich & Trotz Named Super Lawyers in 2008

Several attorneys of Nahon, Saharovich & Trotz, PLC law firm have been named as 2008 Super Lawyers® by Law & Politics, one of the nation's leading legal journals. An annual listing, Super Lawyers names the top 5 percent of lawyers in Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee as chosen by their peers and through the independent research of Law & Politics.

Alex Saharovich and Corey B. Trotz were included in the list of Top 100 Super Lawyers in Tennessee and selected as Top 50 Super Lawyers in Memphis.

Marcus Nahon, Alex Saharovich, Corey B. Trotz and David A. Siegel were selected in the 2008 Super Lawyers list in the area of Personal Injury.

Glenn K. Vines, Jr. and Lisa S. Johns were included on the 2008 Mid-South Rising Stars list.

Super Lawyers are selected through a rigorous multi-step selection process. Lawyers are nominated by fellow lawyers and then a blue ribbon review panel of leading attorneys from each practice area conducts a thorough review of the candidates to be included as Super Lawyers. The list of Super Lawyers is published in the 2008 edition of Washington Law & Politics and Memphis Magazine.

Formed in 1990, Nahon, Saharovich and Trotz, PLC is the largest Tennessee-based personal injury law firm, devoted exclusively to helping injured people recover compensation due to negligence of others. The firm has offices in Memphis, Jackson and Knoxville, Tennessee and Jackson, Mississippi. The firm's Practice Groups are Nursing Home, Mass Torts and Product Liability, Catastrophic Injury, Trucking Injury and Workers' Compensation.